

Official Diary

Saturday, 28 February 1953

1. At the request of Mr. Dulles, had prepared a round-up of significant items for transmission to the President. While this was in course of preparation, there was a major flap with respect to events in Iran. Late in the afternoon a round-up was sent to [REDACTED] at the White House, who decided, however, to transmit only the material relating to Iran. 25X9A6

In the course of the Iran flap, gave notice to [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] also requested O/CI to insure through their duty officer that all members of the IAC were alerted to the course of events. In the light of the information available, we determined that there was no immediate need for calling a special meeting of the Watch Committee. Also alerted [REDACTED]
